Your Heavenly Father and Jesus live in a beautiful place called heaven.

Your Heavenly Father and Jesus have bodies.

Your Heavenly Father made your body and your heart.

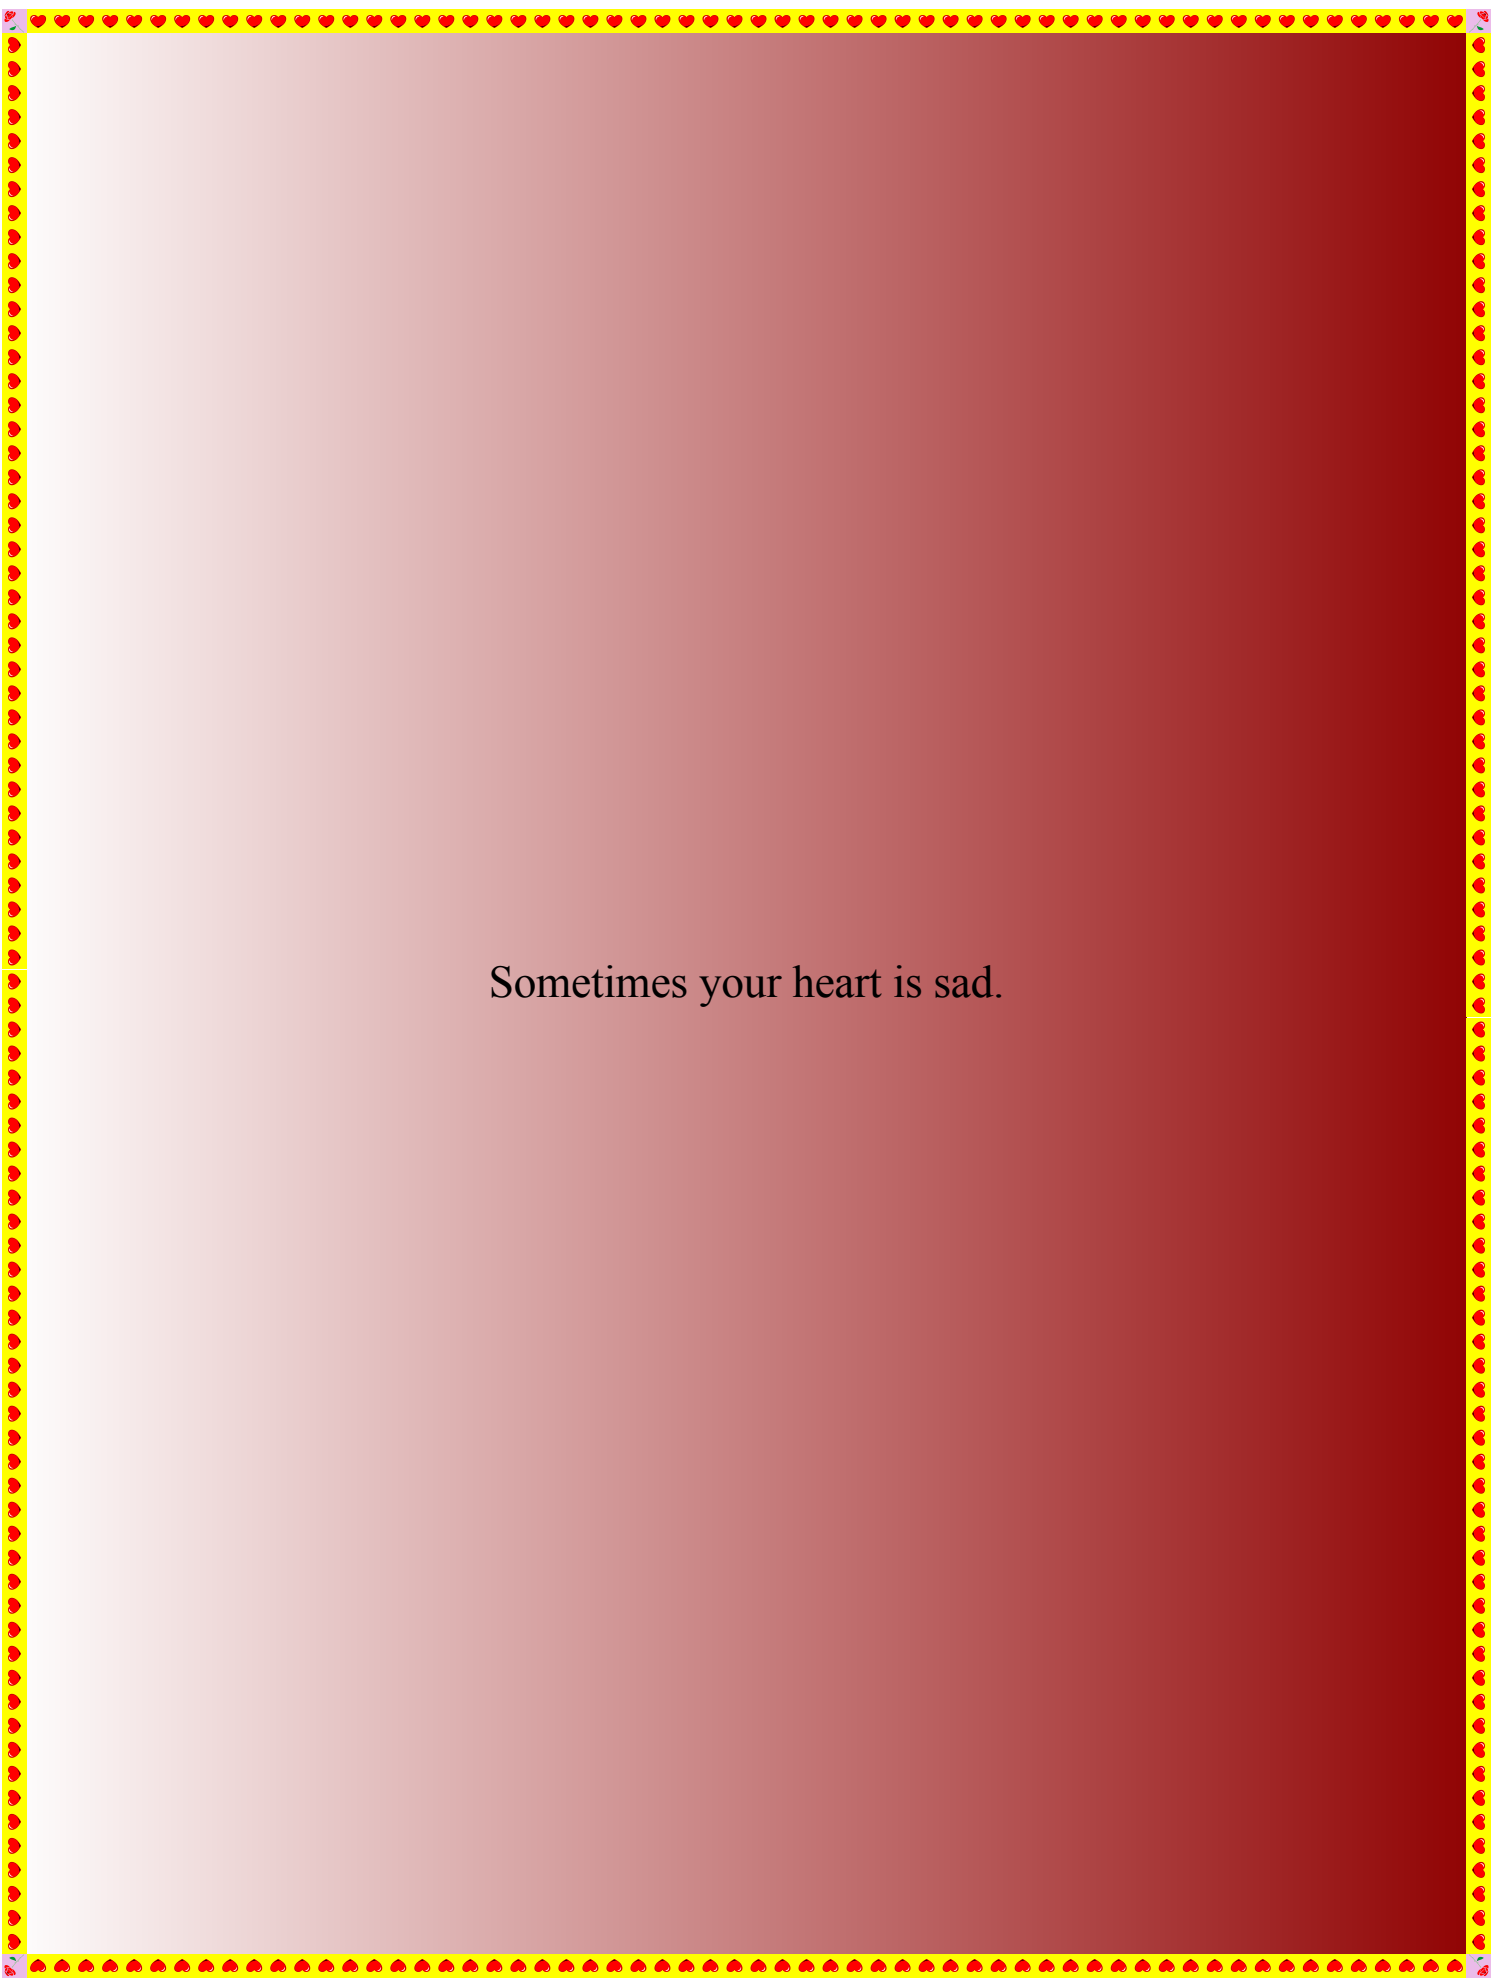

Sometimes your heart is happy.

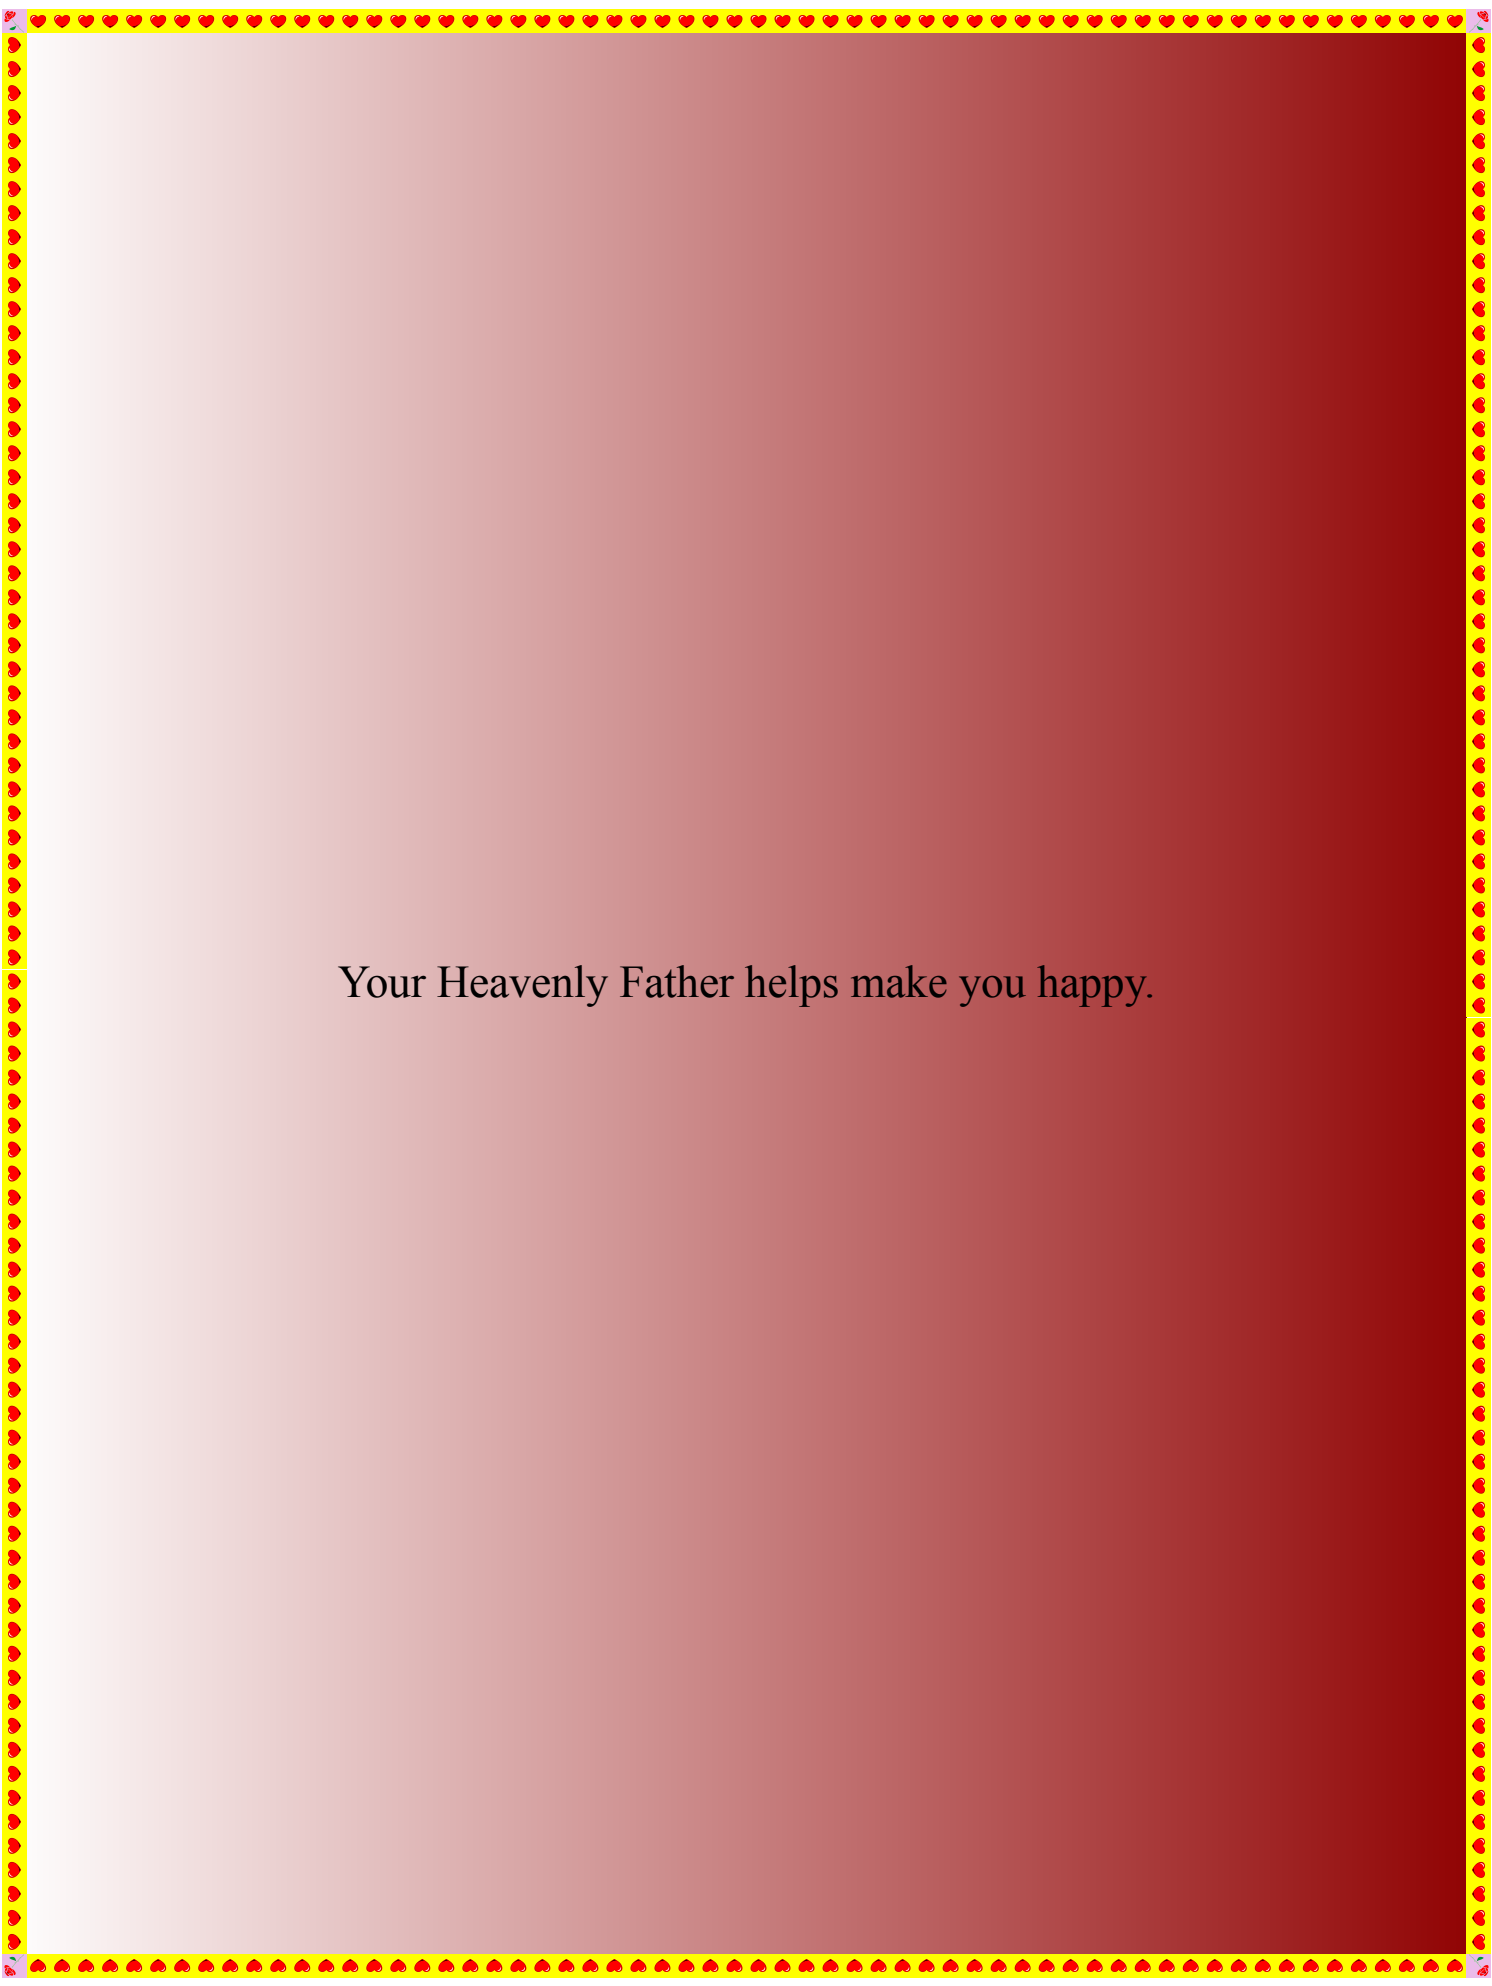

Sometimes your heart is happy.

Sometimes your heart is happy.

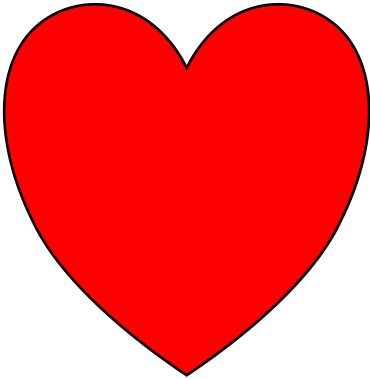

Sometimes your heart is sad.

Your Heavenly Father helps make you happy.

Listen to Your Heavenly Father

Listen to Your Heavenly Father

You love your Heavenly Father and He loves you. You listen to Him tell you good things like He loves you and you are one of His children. He talks to you and this helps you to be happy. He also wants you to talk to Him so he can hear about the things you are doing right now.

He loves hearing things like you are learning to ride your new bike and your little Sister is riding her new trike. Then you can thank your Heavenly Father for your bike and for your sister and that she has a new trike. You can also ask Him to make it safe riding when you ride your bike and your little sister rides her trike down the sidewalk in front of your house.

Always remember to listen to your Heavenly Father. He listens to you and He wants to talk with you.
